Parents: Help your 7th, 8th or 9th grader get ready for college!

Take advantage of a unique opportunity to participate in a FREE Steps to Success videoconference for parents of African-American, Latino and Native American middle school students at Atlanta Area School for the Deaf.

- Get important information about financial aid for college
- Learn about your student's Individual Education Plan (IEP)
- See the latest in communication technology
- Talk to successful deaf and hard-of-hearing professionals about their experiences in college and success in life

Saturday, August 9th 10 a.m. – 5 p.m.

This videoconference is sponsored by Rochester Institute of Technology in Rochester, N. Y., and will be captioned and have sign language and Spanish interpreting. There will be a facilitator at your site to assist you. Breakfast and lunch will be provided.

What other parents say:

"Eye-opening."

"Very empowering presentation on IEP, advocacy and resources."

"I learned about programs I had no idea existed, and they are in the best interests of my daughter."
