There is a national organization called National Black Deaf Advocates (NBDA). Their mission is to promote the leadership development, economic and educational opportunities, social equality, and to safeguard the general health and welfare of Black deaf and hard of hearing people. Their website is www.nbda.org

Our local affiliate, Detroit Black Deaf Advocates (DBDA) was founded in 1984. We have since been working hard to mirror the mission of BDA. DBDA is very excited to host the Midwestern Regional Conference on August 19-21, 2010 in Detroit, MI. It is all about empowering our deaf, hard or hearing, and deaf-blind communities from the Midwestern States. It will take on the issues related to social, economic and leadership development through forum of seven workshops.

DBDA is offering the advertising pages in the program books for Midwestern Regional Conference. Our program books are measured in size 8x11.

Please feel free to contact me at any time to address any additional questions you may have. You may reach me by email; tsharpe25@live.com.

Thank you for in advance for your contribution to our organization. We appreciate your support.

Sincerely,

Tracy Sharpe,
Chairperson of Program Book
