

Still I Rise!

The Enduring Legacy of Black Deaf Arkansans
Before & After Integration

order this unique
Booklet & DVD

Still I Rise:

The Enduring Legacy of Black Deaf Arkansas
Before & After Integration

"Still I Rise: The Enduring Legacy of Black Deaf Arkansans Before and After Integration" is an important contribution to the history of the American Deaf Community. It includes compelling stories of the experiences of Black deaf students prior to and after the Supreme Court's Brown v. the Topeka Board of Education decision in 1954. Before the Brown decision, Arkansas was one of about 15 states, mostly in the South, which maintained separate schools for White and Black Deaf students.

This DVD and book is a compilation of the memories and stories shared by Black Deaf Arkansans ranging from the first interviewee who attended school during the segregation era in 1919 to those who were among the first group of Black students to integrate the Arkansas School for the Deaf in 1965 and afterwards.

DVD: Approximately 60 minutes American Sign Language Open-Captioned

Booklet: 47 pages with photographs

Send ____ copies of "Still I Rise: The Enduring Legacy of Black Deaf Arkansans Before & After Integration" for $25.00 each. Add $5.00 shipping & handling for the first copy; for each additional copy, add $2.00 for s&h.

If you order 10 or more copies, contact Karen Adeeb-Anderson by fax at 501-683-0710 or email: kadeeb0603@att.net.

Check enclosed ____ Charge my ____ VISA ____ Master Card

Card No. _____ Exp. Date _____

Name _____

Address (1) _____

Address (2) _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

E-mail address _____

Make your check payable to: Arkansas Association of the Deaf and send order & payment to

Arkansas Black Deaf History Project

Attn: Karen Adeeb-Anderson

PO Box 55063

Little Rock, AR 72215-5063